

Come and enjoy a warm break

// ⁵ The Lord is the portion of mine inheritance and of my cup: thou maintainest my lot. ⁶ The lines are fallen unto me in pleasant places; yea, I have a goodly heritage. ⁷ I will bless the Lord, who hath given me counsel: my reins also instruct me in the night seasons. ⁸ I have set the Lord always before me: because he is at my right hand, I shall not be moved. **//

Psalm 16:5–8

As summer lends itself to Autumn and not far behind it, Winter, we all start to think of settling into the shorter days and longer evenings. This is the perfect time to consider a visit to one of our homes.

When walking through the doors of a Christadelphian Care Home, you will be welcomed with a friendly warm smile and not long after you will find you have a lovely hot cup of tea or coffee in your hand. You will be embraced by the caring atmosphere, full of love and cheerfulness, as you are soon in conversation with someone you have known for years but have not seen in ages.

Food is not to be forgotten. How could you forget with the aroma of a home-cooked meal being lovingly prepared, mingling in the air!

Opportunities abound with spiritual conversation or activities such as hymn singing or the daily Bible readings, and the opportunity for endless amounts of fulfilling fellowship.

Maybe you fancy a quiet moment with a puzzle, or a good book or join other activities such as knitting, Chat for Chaps or Arts and Crafts, to name a few.

Having peace of mind that you are in a safe, warm environment where you can rest easy knowing that at any time you could call on someone for some extra support. At our care homes we are blessed with teams full of loving, caring, well-trained colleagues who work hard daily to provide support to all residents.

A Thankful Family

Arriving at Fair Haven for the first time, you will be forgiven for thinking you have arrived at some 1960 ex-council building hidden behind a high hedge, but don't let that utilitarian brickwork face deceive you. Hidden behind its doors you are first first met by a wonderful, homely, warm atmosphere which is then followed by equally welcoming staff that put you completely at ease.

Fair Haven is having a lot of building work done at this time. But, on our three visits to the home, save a flash of a yellow hi-vis waistcoat passing a window at high speed, nothing seemed obstrusive. This work will, in the long term, make things so much better for staff and residents.

But don't get me wrong, the rooms are a nice size, bright and airy, with a lovely bathroom ensuite. The building boasts apartments for couples wishing to become residents. There is a wonderful dining room which is warm and bright and a good size too. There are two nice sitting room areas, one attached to a good size conservatory, which is also being revamped and will be a great bonus once done.

Through the conservatory you come outside to a surprisingly large garden, well laid out with good circular paths making it easy for residents to get around, despite their disabilities. It's well maintained and still being improved by a young gardener who has followed his grandfather into the trade who better still, used to work in this very garden.

The staff are without a shadow of a doubt Fair Haven's greatest asset. They are all lovely and caring and work hard to make the residents' lives comfortable and full. With a good cross over of information, so important in this kind of service, you won't find any of them wanting - all fully engaged in the home, from the top down to the cleaners, gardener and maintenance man who seems to be everywhere!

Fair Haven is a hidden gem and certainly our relative has not stopped smiling since arrival.
